24. Other than players who are hosted, all other players and participants shall be responsible for their own board and lodging. The Organizing Committee shall offer reasonable and favourably priced accommodation and shall state the daily costs in the Invitation.

Medical

25. From the duration of arrival and until departure, the Organizing Committee shall insure the participants against accidents and the need for medical services including cost of medicines in case of acute illnesses, surgical operations, etc. The Organizing Committee shall not be responsible for medical services needed for treatment of chronic or other illnesses which already existed before the arrival at the Competition.

Technical Officials

26. Technical Officials are recommended by the Events Commission in consultation with the FIDE Steering Committee.
27. The Organizing Committee shall be responsible for the travel expenses of the FIDE-appointed Technical Officials. They shall be provided free board and lodging. They shall be paid a stipend in accordance with the Financial Guidelines for Technical Officials.
28. The FIDE Representative shall be responsible to ensure that the Organizing Committee adhere strictly to both the general conditions and the regulations which are specific to the Competition.

29. The Chief Arbiter shall be appointed after consultation with the Organizing Federation. The Organizing Federation shall appoint as many Deputy and Assistant Arbiters as it considers necessary.
30. The Appeals Committee shall comprise 3 persons one of whom may be the FIDE Representative. In the event that the Appeals Committee is appointed by the Technical Meeting, there should be an additional 2 reserve members and in this case, no member shall take part in a decision affecting a player of his own federation.

Appeals

31. A protest against the decision of an Arbiter must be submitted in writing to the Chief Arbiter, within two hours after the end of the playing session.
32. A protest fee of 200 Euro shall be payable to FIDE which is refundable if the protest is upheld. The Appeals Committee may also decide to refund the fee if it considers the appeal was not frivolous.
33. The decision of the Appeals Committee is final, binding and takes effect immediately.
34. The Appeals Committee shall keep a record of all proceedings and submit a final report to FIDE.

Designation of the Winners

35. The final ranking order of the players is determined by the number of points scored. If at the end of the tournament two or more players are tied for the first place or for any prize, the tie shall be broken as in accordance to the FIDE Tie-Break Regulations.
36. Defending Champions shall have personal rights to participate in the same Competition and Event and shall be accorded free board and lodging.

Prizes

37. Before the beginning of the first round, a list of the prizes to be awarded to at least the 10 highest placed participants, including special prizes shall be published together with the rules for their award. The Organizing Committee shall also award Gold, Silver and Bronze medals to the players taking the first three places in each event.
38. The prize fund, if any, shall be stipulated in the Invitation.

Certificates

39. Certificates shall be awarded to players who finish in the top 3 positions.
40. Certificates of Participation shall be given to players, FIDE accredited trainers, managers, and the FIDE appointed Technical Officials.

41. The above Certificates shall bear the signature of a FIDE Official, the Organizing Federation and not more than two other signatories.
