5. Playing system and rate of play

The championships was played according to the Swiss System (13 rounds), in accordance with FIDE Laws of Chess and Regulations of July 1, 2009.

According to FIDE rules, the rate of play was 90 minutes for the 40 moves followed by 30 minutes for all remaining moves with an increment of 30 seconds per move starting from move one.

6. Final ranking of players. Tie-breaks

1. The final ranking order of the players is determined by the number of points scored.
2. If at the end of the tournament two or more players are tied for the first place, the tie shall be broken according to FIDE regulations D.VI.01.14:
  - a. For Swiss tournaments where the players involved have all played only against rated opponents, after eliminating the lowest rated opponent, find the sum of opponents' ratings. The highest total wins. If still tied, eliminate the rating of the next lowest rated opponent(s) until a decision is possible.
  - b. For other Swiss tournaments, the sum of progressive scores. The highest total wins. If still tied, deduct the first round score, and if necessary the second round and so on.

7. Additional competition rules

1. Any player who arrived at the chessboard after the start of the session lost the game. Thus the default time is 0 minutes - vide art. 6.6a of the FIDE Laws of Chess.
Remark: Only one player was late for the 1st round (about 6 minutes) and lost a game because of the absence. All other rounds were started at the announced time (exactly!) with the presence of all participants.
2. Analyzing was not allowed in the playing hall.
3. During the game the players were not allowed to go to the analyzing room or to the press room.
4. Flash photography was used only in the first ten minutes of the playing session.
5. Only the players and arbiters were allowed in the actual playing area, except with the express permission of the Chief Arbiter. After the end of the game the players had to leave the closed area.
6. As long as the game is in progress a player may talk only to an arbiter or to his opponent as permitted by the Laws of Chess.

8. Prizes

1. Players placed first, second and third were awarded respectively with gold, silver and bronze medals. In case of a tie the winner were decided in accordance with the mentioned FIDE regulations. It concerned also the prizes.

2. Money prizes and trophies (gifts) were awarded to players who take the first eight places in each Championship (open juniors and girls).
3. The prizes were awarded at the official closing ceremony. The players receive the prizes personally.

9. Website

The website of the Championships –www.wjcc2010.pl - were prepared by FA Jaroslaw Pietraszewski.

There were presented history of the FIDE, the Polish Chess Federation and the WJCC with all detailed results of the events since 1951 year, prepared by IA Andrzej Filipowicz.

Website was visited by 149.000 visitors from 150 countries of all continents.

10. Opening ceremony

The opening ceremony of the WJCC was conducted on August 2, 2010 in the tournament Hall in the presence of the Representative of the Polish President, the Members of the Polish Parliament, Authorities of the "Podkarpacie" Region and Members of the Board of the Polish Chess Federation. The ceremony was accompanied by the music of the famous Polish Composer Frederic Chopin.

FIDE President HE Kirsan Ilumzhinov greeted participants and guests, congratulated Organizers well prepared Championships and opened the 2010 World Junior and Girls U20 Championships.

All participating teams were introducing on the big very telebime in a very original way – the first was a flag of the country on the screen, then introduced the picture of participating players of the country sitting at the table with the small national flag.

10. Closing ceremony

The closing ceremony and distribution of medals and prizes were held on August 2, 2010 in the tournament hall in presence the Members of the Polish Parliament and the "Podkarpacie" Region Authorities and the President of the Polish Chess Federation Mr. Tomasz Sielicki, who closed the 2010 WJCC

The anthems of the winners as well as anthems of Poland and FIDE were played.

11. Organization

I wish to admit the very good standard of the Championship organization. The participants stayed in three hotels: the „GRAND” hotel in Chotowa, the „Sezam” hotel in Machowa and the „Lord” hotel in Debica. Distance between hotels and the venue were from 6 to 12 km. The special buses with the Police escort everyday took the participants to avoid the possible traffic jams. The ambulance was always present and ready next to the tournament Hall with the medicine doctor.

On a free day the interesting excursion to Krakow and Salt Mine in Bochnia were held.

12. Thanks

I wish to use this opportunity to say thank you to the Chairman of the Organizing Committee Mr. Jozef CHUDY, to the Tournament Director Mr. Jan KUSINA and to Mr. Andrzej GRYGIEL. They prepared all in the best way and created very good conditions to run the WJCC in Czarna.

I wish to extend thanks to all very experienced Arbiters, my good friends. They helped me very much. They followed games full time and thanks to their work we had no one conflict and protest during the Championships.
