Nr 01_106_2021

Honorable Mustafa Amazzal,

According to the decision of the FIDE Constitutional Commission, the Council and the President of FIDE are to appoint a reverse delegate for Morocco (we attach the decision of the Commission). We invite you, no later than till 30 June 2021, to submit your proposals for a candidate for this position with justification of their proper competences. Several candidates are also welcome.

Following the submission of candidates, the FIDE Council will appoint this delegate with an estimated starting date of duties set on 15 July 2021. The date has been chosen, taking into consideration your kind information that potentially being the long awaited day when the General Assembly and elections being held. However, FIDE reserves the right to review the results of the federation elections before taking any further decisions.

Looking forward to the elections being organized and a proper functioning of the federation renewed.

Respectfully,

Arkady Dvorkovich
FIDE President
