4. Technical Regulations

4.1 There will be separate Championships for FIDE rating categories under-2300, under-2000 & under-1700. In each rating section, a separate Championship for women shall be organized only if there are at least 10 women entries from at least 2 continents. Otherwise the women's event will be merged with open.

- 4.2 a) The Championships are open for players registered by their national federation. FIDE member federations shall have the right to send as many players as they wish.
- b) The Winners from each World Amateur Championship rating section and from each Continental Amateur Championship rating section, of the year preceding this edition, are invited with personal rights as long as they don't reach or exceed a FIDE rating of 2300 by the registration deadline, and their places cannot be substituted.
- 4.3 a) For participation in the u-2300 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 2300 or greater for at least one year prior to the registration deadline (16 September 2021). A player must not have any title above FM (or WFM for women) when the tournament starts.
- b) For participation in the u-2000 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 2000 or greater for at least one year prior to the start of the championship (17 October 2021). A player must not have any title above CM (or WCM for women) when the tournament starts.
- c) For participation in the u-1700 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 1700 or greater for at least one year prior to the start of the championship (17 October 2021). A player must not have any title above CM (or WCM for women) when the tournament starts.
- If a player reaches or exceeds the FIDE rating of 1700 or 2000 after the registration deadline, he/she will play in the upper rating category.
- 4.4 a) The games will be held in 9 rounds with FIDE-rated Swiss system.
- b) The time limit for each player is 90 minutes for the whole game + 30 seconds increment for every move played, starting from the first move.
- c) A player forfeits the game if he hasn't appeared at his board within 15 minutes after the start of the game.
- d) Tie-break criteria: The final ranking order of the players is determined by the number of points scored. If at the end of the tournament, two or more players are tied for the first place or for any prize, the tie shall be broken in priority accordance to the following criteria for Swiss events:
- i. Results of direct encounters between the tied players (applies only if all tied players have played each other).
 - ii. Bucholz Cut 1.
 - iii. Bucholz.
 - iv. The greater number of games played with black.
 - v. The greater number of wins.
- e) The FIDE Anti-Cheating rules and guidelines are valid for all FIDE World Championships.

f) Appeals against decisions of the Chief Arbiter must be submitted in written form to the Chairman of the appeals committee within one hour after the completion of the respective game. The protest must be accompanied with the sum of 200 €, as a deposit from the signatory. If the appeal is granted, the sum shall be returned immediately. If the appeal is refused, the deposit is forfeited to FIDE. The appeal has to be lodged by the player. The decisions of the Appeals Committee are final.
