Dear Michael,

Thank you for your email of 16 July.

We would appreciate if you could also clarify how Pavel Tregubov got the title of FIDE Trainer in Caldas Novas as he did not take part in the written exam, according to what we know.

Furthermore, we would also like to receive a list of all title holders awarded from this seminar who did not attend the lectures or did not participate in the exam.

Best regards,

Georgios Makropoulos

FIDE Deputy President

Dear Georgios,

The below correspondence is in response of your July 23, 2012 e-mail.

GM Pavel Tregubov of Russia did actively participate in the seminar. Mr. Tregubov was fully engaged, and he answered a wide range of questions posed to him by myself and Mr. Gurevich. The questions posed to Mr. Tregubov were those that were contained in the written examination given to other participants in the seminar. Mr. Tregubov answered these questions with ease and demonstrated his expertise and knowledge. Based upon Mr. Tregubov's exceptional credentials, including coaching the former World Champion Vladimir Kramnik, Mr. Tregubov's participation in the seminar, and his thorough and accurate responses to oral questioning, Mr. Gurevich and I determined that he passed his examination and deserved to be awarded the title of FIDE Trainer.

1.2.2.3. Title Award:

At the conclusion of the examination and before certificates were awarded, participants posed for a group photo. GM Tregubov could be seen in the photo. Please, see photo gallery on the TRG's webpage, FIDE website. Photos - courtesy of CACDEC Chairman Allan Herbert.

The results of the seminar were also posted on the TRG webpage, all titles were awarded in accordance with the TRG's Seminars Guide. It is also of note that the titles awarded by lecturers are subject to approval by TRG Council:

12. All the above files should be send to TRG Secretary (Efstratios Grivas - grivasefs@yahoo.co.uk) in order to be approved by the TRG Council and send to FIDE for the relative procedures.

Best regards,
