To: FIDE African Delegates

Dear Chess Friends,

Re: PROPOSED STATUTES FOR FIDE AFRICA

As you will have noted, our Continent has been considering adopting new statutes for some time now.

Unfortunately this issue has been deferred too often and this has led to stagnation in the decision making process and operational efficiency of the African Continental body.

The Chess Federation of Zambia wishes to submit the attached draft of statutes, based on the European Chess Union model, for consideration.

These draft statutes were previously circulated for consideration during the 2010 African Continental Assembly in Khanty Mansiysk.

Unfortunately the concentration on the then FIDE elections meant that the delegates did not have the opportunity to comprehensively consider this draft document.

The Istanbul African Continental Assembly provides a second opportunity for delegates to take a giant leap in streamlining the administrative structure in our Continental body.

We look forward to concluding this matter in Istanbul.

Yours Sincerely,

CHESS FEDERATION OF ZAMBIA

Lewis Ncube
PRESIDENT

(NEW LOGO TO BE AGREED UPON IF REQUIRED)

FIDE AFRICA STATUTES

MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION OF FIDE AFRICA

1. The name of the Association is “FIDE Africa”.
2. FIDE Africa is an independent association and has its seat in the town of, in the country of The Association is subject to the national laws of
3. Members are African national chess federations which have principal authority over chess activities in their own countries and which have been admitted to Federation Internationale des Echecs (FIDE) as member-federations. FIDE Africa consists of those national member-federations listed in Annex 1 and those additional member-federations assigned to it by FIDE after 2012 and admitted to membership by the General Assembly of FIDE Africa as “Members”. Associate Members are other international associations accepted as associate members of the Association by the General Assembly of FIDE Africa on the basis that they do not have either a right to vote at the FIDE Africa General Assembly or the right to nominate a representative to have a seat on the Board of FIDE Africa (“Associate Members”).
4. FIDE Africa:
 - (a) is concerned exclusively with chess and chess related activities with sporting, cultural, educational and other interests;
 - (b) is democratically established and bases itself on the principles of equal rights of its Members;
 - (c) is a non profit making organisation;
 - (d) rejects discriminatory treatment on grounds of colour, creed, disability, impairment, occupation, race, religious or political affiliation, or sexual orientation and promotes equal opportunities in a positive manner;
 - (e) observes strict neutrality in the internal affairs of its Members; and
 - (f) only allows events (competitions, congresses, meetings) to be hosted by Members where free access is generally assured to representatives of all its Members save where the General Assembly makes exceptions for reasons of state of war or severe violence between countries on a three quarter majority vote of those present and voting.
5. FIDE Africa is the only organisation which has the right to organise the various African Chess Championships.
6. The objectives for which FIDE Africa is established are:
 - (a) to safeguard and further the interest and development of chess within its jurisdiction (as established by the territory of its Members) as well as safeguarding and promoting the interests of its Members
 - (b) to represent the interests of its Members at FIDE and other international organisations;
 - (c) to foster a positive framework of friendship and collaboration and generate peaceful relationships between the FIDE Africa and its Members within its said jurisdiction;
 - (d) to provide an organisation for the promotion and participation of chess in all related existing and future activities, tournaments and other competitions and seminars within its said jurisdiction;

- (e) to disseminate useful and instructive articles and ideas with respect to chess education;
 - (f) to raise funds by means of membership subscriptions, fees for services or otherwise for all the purposes and its objectives in such amounts and in such manner as may be authorised by the General Assembly; and
 - (g) to do all such other lawful things as are helpful to the attainment of the above objectives.
7. The Association has the right to make Regulations to achieve the objectives referred to in Clause 6 and to apply them accordingly. FIDE Africa respects and applies FIDE rules and regulations, even concerning IOC Rules, except when in conflict with the present FIDE Africa Statutes and General Assembly decisions.
 8. The income and property of the Association shall only be applied to promote the objectives of the Association. Members shall receive no dividend, or bonus, or any other kind of profit, directly or indirectly, from the Association. However, nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any Member, or to any employee, or officer of the Association, or to any other person, for services actually rendered to the Association. If any Member of the Association receives any dividend, or bonus, or any other profit in contravention of this stipulation that Member shall be liable to account to the Association for the same in full.
 9. In the event of a dissolution or of a winding up of the Association, by a decision of not less than two thirds of the Members taken at a General Assembly, any surplus property, after the payment of all debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having similar objectives to those of the Association which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed under or by virtue of Clause 8 hereof.
 10. The official language of the Association is English, French, Arabic and Portuguese. In documents containing different versions in more than one language, other than documents originally written in a different language, the English version is final.

MEMBERSHIP

5. Any new Members or Associate Members may only be admitted to membership by a simple majority vote of the those present and voting at the General Assembly, but the Board may admit a new Member to Provisional Membership (which shall carry the equivalent rights and obligations to membership apart from the right to vote at the Assembly) until the next General Assembly.
6. Applications for membership shall be made on the appropriate form of the FIDE Africa as authorised by the Board from time to time. Applicants shall satisfy the General Assembly as to their qualifications for membership of FIDE Africa and shall undertake to be bound by the Memorandum and the Articles of Association.
7. The Board may for just cause propose to the General Assembly the suspension of the Membership of any Member or Associate Member. The Board must serve a notice on such member giving reasons for its decision and the member shall have the right to make representations as to why it should not be removed from membership. Copies of both the Board's notice and the member's response shall be included as attachments to the Notice of the Meeting of the General Assembly. The General Assembly shall hear oral representations on behalf of the Board and the member and shall have the right to expel the member by a simple majority vote of those present and voting.

8. (a) The General Assembly shall be notified by the Board if a Member's or Associate Member's FIDE Africa Dues are in arrears for more than 24 months and in those circumstances the General Assembly may on the recommendation of the Board suspend the membership rights and services of that member.
- (b) Any Member or Associate Member may terminate its membership by giving notice in writing to the President. It shall forfeit any FIDE Africa Dues already paid.
- (c) Members who are in arrears with their FIDE Africa Dues for a period exceeding six months automatically lose their vote at the General Assembly (but not at Extraordinary General Assembly Meetings).
- (d) The Board has the right to suspend all services to a Member or Associate Member in arrears with its FIDE Africa Dues for a period exceeding six months and to exclude the teams and individual players representing a Member from participation in any FIDE Africa events.
- (e) If any defaulting member settles his overdue all membership rights and services will be restored with immediate effect.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

9. The General Assembly is the highest authority of FIDE Africa and is competent in all affairs that have not been delegated to another body of FIDE Africa.
10. The General Assembly is comprised of all Members and Associate Members (who have the right to attend and speak but not to vote.) The sessions of the General Assembly are held in public, unless it is decided otherwise by simple majority vote of those present and voting.
11. Members and Associate Members shall appoint one Delegate each for the purposes of representation at FIDE Africa. Any such Member or Associate Member may revoke at any time the appointment of its Delegate and may substitute another representative in his stead. All appointments and revocations shall be made in writing.
12. If a Member or Associate Member has not named a Delegate or given a proxy for the General Assembly then that Member's President/Chairperson will represent the Member.
13. (a) Every Member or Associate Member may be represented at the General Assembly by the representative (President/Chairperson, Delegate or proxy) of another Member.

- (b) A proxy can be assigned by the Federation President/Chairperson or Delegate to another Member or Associate Member only by written authorisation (email, fax or letter) bearing signature of the President/Chairperson or Delegate or of an official authorised by that Member or Associated Member as last registered with FIDE Africa.
 - (c) All proxies must be registered at the FIDE Africa Secretariat at least one hour before the opening session of the General Assembly. After this deadline further proxies will not be accepted.
 - (d) Where two or more proxies are received and there is a conflict, the order of precedence shall be as follows:
 - (i) Proxies received from the President/Chairperson of the Member or Associate Member
 - (ii) Proxies received from the Delegate of the Member or Associate Member.Where the order of precedence is established but there is still a conflict, the latest e-mail, fax or letter shall be decisive.
14. A representative of a Member or Associate Member may represent only one additional Member or Associate Member besides his own.
15. Each Member has one vote.
16. The General Assembly is competent to pass resolutions, if it has been convened according to these Articles and if there is, for election, a quorum as required by Article 17.
17. (a) A quorum of 50 % of the Members with the right to vote (including valid proxies) is required for votes on elections or change of Statutes.
- (b) If a quorum is not present at the appointed time the President shall postpone the meeting for no more than three hours, following which those Members present will be considered a quorum, provided that no less than 30% entitled to vote shall then be present.
- (c) If the quorum in Article 17(b) is still not fulfilled, an extraordinary General Assembly correctly convened after this General Assembly, may decide on the relevant elections and set out in the previous agenda regardless of the number of Members present.
18. Votes (other than those for elections which are by secret ballot) are made by show of hands unless a roll call is demanded by any Member or unless five Members present demand a secret ballot. For secret ballots the Board will select two scrutineers (who are not candidates for election if the relevant vote is for an election) from amongst the Members to act to check eligibility to vote and count the votes.
19. Unless indicated to the contrary in these Articles, all decisions at the General Assembly shall be passed by a simple majority of votes of those present and voting.
20. Resolutions passed in the form of a recommendation, are not binding on Members

21. The invitation to the annual General Assembly must be issued to Members and Associate Members by the President four months before the beginning of the General Assembly and this may be done by publication on the FIDE Africa website.
22. The place and date of the annual General Assembly is decided by the previous General Assembly or in default or emergency by the Board.
23. Proposals from Members to be included in the agenda for the General Assembly must reach the Secretary General not later than three months before the beginning of the General Assembly.
24. The proceedings of the Annual General Assembly shall include: Reports by the President and General Secretary; approval of the previous year's minutes; the presentation, discussion and approval of FIDE Africa's accounts for the preceding financial year by the Treasurer.
25. Any Member shall have the right to raise any question or to move for discussion only any motion having reference to any of the objectives of FIDE Africa as defined in the Memorandum of Association.
26. Subject to Article 27 the agenda, together with the relevant documents, shall be sent out to Members and Associate Members, six weeks before the beginning of the General Assembly.
27. If the General Assembly is scheduled to be held in the same period as the FIDE Congress, the agenda, together with the relevant documents, shall be sent not later than two weeks after the receipt of the invitation to the FIDE Congress and all time limits for notice herein (including those in Article 34) shall be reduced consequentially.
28.
 - (a) An Extraordinary General Assembly shall be convened by the President upon the request of one fifth of the Members or majority of the Board. Such request, which shall be in writing, shall state the object for the convening of the meeting.
 - (b) The Extraordinary General Assembly shall convene within one month of such request. The agenda shall be sent out within two weeks of such request.
 - (c) The Extraordinary General Assembly is able to modify the Memorandum and Articles of Association, decide on dissolution of FIDE Africa as well dealing with items of which due notice has been given.
 - (d) At an Extraordinary General Assembly, all Members have the right to take part in votes irrespective of any financial obligations outstanding.
29. The President, or in his absence, the Deputy President, presides over the General Assembly.
30. The General Assembly has the following duties that cannot be delegated to another body:
 - (a) Election of the Board and of the Auditor(s);
 - (b) Vote on the annual accounts and discharge of the Board;
 - (c) Annual budget;

- (d) Introduction of new regulations or amendments to existing Financial, Tournament and other Regulations;
- (e) Award of FIDE Africa tournaments and events;
- (f) Acceptance of new Members and Associate Members;
- (g) Termination of membership pursuant to Article 7; and
- (h) Termination of Board membership pursuant to Article 37 or 38.

AUDITOR(S)

- 31. (a) FIDE Africa 's Auditor, elected at the Annual General Assembly shall not be eligible for membership of the Board during his term of office.
- (b) The General Assembly elects an Auditor for a term of office of four years. Re-election is possible.
- (c) The Auditor audits the accounts of the past year after the closing of the annual accounts and reports in writing to the General Assembly.
- (d) In his report the Auditor shall recommend the General Assembly either to accept the annual accounts with discharge of the Board, or to refer the annual accounts back to the Board.

ELECTIONS

- 32. Subject to Article 8 all Members shall have the right to vote in the elections of the Board.
- 33. (a) Any Member entitled to vote shall have the right to propose or to second any number of eligible candidates for election to the Board.
- (b) Eligible candidates for election to the Board shall be individual members of a Member.
- 34. (a) The elections for the Board shall take place every four years at the General Assembly of FIDE Africa which so far as is practicable shall be held at the same time as the four yearly elections for FIDE Offices.
- (b) Nomination papers, obtainable from FIDE Africa, must be completed and submitted to the Secretariat of FIDE Africa at least three months prior to the beginning of General Assembly. A list of the nominated candidates shall then be sent by the Secretary General to all Members together with all other notices as provided herein.
- (c) The Board should comprise representatives of different Members and to that intent no Board member may at the time of his election or after be any kind of official of the same member as another Board member.
- (d) In the case that one of the Board members changes his federation and then seeks to represent the Board as a FIDE Africa official of a federation already represented in the Board, the changing member must step down, unless the other Board member agrees to step down in his place.

35. (a) A Board comprising a President, a Deputy President, the three Zone Presidents, a Secretary General, a Treasurer and three Committee Members shall be elected at the General Assembly. The President, the Deputy President, Zone Presidents, the Secretary General and the Treasurer are elected to fulfil their respective offices. In addition the immediate past President (if any) will become a full member of the Board, after approval by the General Assembly, in which case he will have the title Honorary President.
- (b) The President, the Deputy President, the Secretary General and the Treasurer are elected on a combined ticket. Nominations for this ticket must reach the FIDE Africa Secretariat at least three months before the General Assembly.
- (c) Votes in elections for the tickets are decided in the first ballot by the absolute majority of all votes cast but if there are more than two tickets and none of them respectively has an absolute majority on the first ballot, a second ballot is organised between the two tickets with the most votes on the first ballot. In the event of a tie further ballots will be taken until the tie is broken.
- (d) Votes in elections for the five positions of Executive Board Members shall be conducted on a Zone basis for three of the positions being allocated on the basis of one to the each Zone. The Deputy President and the Secretary General will complete the FIVE positions on the FIDE Executive Board.
36. (a) Any vacancies in the Board arising by failure to elect members at the General Assembly or arising by death resignation or removal from office shall be filled by the Board within thirty days with the new member having full voting rights but ceasing to hold office at the following General Assembly, but the Board may continue to act, notwithstanding any vacancy.
- (b) A by-election will be held at the next General Assembly, in the usual manner, after a call for nominations to fill the vacancy or vacancies by giving as much notice as is reasonably practicable.
37. The Board may for just cause propose to the General Assembly the removal from office of a Board member. The Board must serve a notice on such board member giving reasons for its decision and the member shall have the right to make representations as to why it should not be removed from membership of the Board. Copies of both the Board's notice and the Board member's response shall be included as attachments to the Notice of the Meeting of the General Assembly. The General Assembly shall hear oral representations on behalf of the Board and the Board member in question and shall have the right to terminate that person's membership of the Board by a simple majority vote.
38. If a motion of no confidence in a Board member or members of which due notice has been given in the Agenda of the General Assembly and such motion is passed by a simple majority the General Assembly shall hear oral representations on behalf of the Board member or members in question and shall have the right by individual votes to terminate that or those persons' membership of the Board by a simple majority vote.

FIDE AFRICA BOARD

39. (a) The affairs of FIDE Africa are managed by the Board in the period between the General Assemblies, insofar as they are not delegated to another body without possibility of further delegation.
- (b) Issues which can only be decided by the General Assembly are beyond the competence of the Board.
40. It shall be the responsibility of the Board to:
- (a) manage FIDE Africa in accordance with the provisions contained in the Memorandum and Articles of Association;
 - (b) organise the various Championship cycles for men, women and youths; comprehensive regulations for the respective Championship cycles must be printed and circulated to all Members by not later than January 31st of each year;
 - (c) affiliate or otherwise associate FIDE Africa to international organisations having similar or complementary objects;
 - (d) promote the observance by the Members of the FIDE Code of Ethics as a whole;
 - (e) establish and amend as necessary bye-laws for the routine day-to-day operation of the FIDE Africa;
 - (f) certify and authenticate documentation against the payment of such fee as the Board may determine from time to time;
 - (g) carry out all such other activities as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objectives of FIDE Africa;
41. Subject to the provisions approved by a General Assembly, members of the Board shall hold office in an honorary capacity and no member of the Board shall be personally responsible for any liability lawfully incurred by FIDE Africa.
42. (a) The Board may take and agree decisions by letter, fax or e-mail if no Board member demands a meeting. The President will determine whether to call a Board meeting or in his absence the Deputy President. Minutes of the discussions and final decisions will be made in all cases.
- (b) A quorum shall be at least 50% of the members of the Board in post at the time of the meeting.

43. The President shall be bound to convene special meetings of the Board if so requested by at least three Board members. In their request, which shall be in writing, the said members shall state the object for the convening of the meeting. The meeting shall be called and held not later than one month from receipt of the request.
44. Decisions of the Board require a simple majority of votes. The President, or in his absence the Deputy President, has a second and casting vote to establish a majority.
45. The Board shall not discuss matters that are not contained in the Agenda with the exception of any matter, which, in the view of the Board, is considered to be of an urgent or important nature.
46.
 - (a) The President shall convene and preside over all meetings of the Board.
 - (b) In cases of great urgency the President may take decisions normally taken by the Board. Any such decision taken by the President is subject to ratification by the Board at the next meeting.
47. In the absence of the President, the Deputy President shall enjoy all the powers accorded to the President under these Articles of Association. In the absence of both these officers, the other Board members present shall elect one of the members to preside over the meeting.
 - (a) The Secretary General is responsible for all administrative activities within the Board and he may appoint a Member from the Board to assist him in his activities.
 - (b) If not decided otherwise by the General Assembly, the Secretary General is responsible for keeping all the minutes of General Assemblies and Board Meetings. He is also responsible for taking care of FIDE Africa's correspondence, requesting results from the tournament organisers of activities which are held under the auspices of FIDE Africa and he is also responsible for holding a record of all events held under FIDE Africa's auspices.
 - (c) The Secretary General is also responsible for advising and communicating to all members FIDE Africa's activities.
 - (a) It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to exercise overall control over the financial administration of FIDE Africa and to submit duly audited accounts to the Board. The financial year of FIDE Africa shall run from the 1st January to the 31st December of each year. The Treasurer shall present the accounts to the Annual General Assembly for approval.
 - (b) The Treasurer is responsible for looking after FIDE Africa's assets in terms of any property, finances, fixtures, clocks, boards, sets, books etc. These assets must be audited on an annual basis.

- (c) The Treasurer is responsible for keeping an updated list of all Members and Associate Members and dues received, and such list should be readily available to all Members of the FIDE Africa.
 - (d) The annual budget of FIDE Africa shall be prepared by the Treasurer before the annual General Assembly and is subject to acceptance by the General Assembly. The FIDE Africa budget is based on the EURO currency. For extraordinary expenditure, not contained in the budget, a request can be submitted to the Board. The Board may approve such expenditure if it is in the interests of FIDE Africa.
 - (e) The Treasurer must obtain due authority from the Board to make any payment over the limit as established by the Board from time to time.
50. No claims for moneys due to FIDE Africa shall be abandoned without the approval of the Board. Similarly no property shall be written off without the consent of the Board.
51. All FIDE Africa bank accounts shall be in the name of FIDE Africa. All bank mandates shall be signed by the Treasurer and at least one of the following:
- (a) the President;
 - (b) the Deputy President;
 - (c) the Secretary General; and
 - (d) any other person appointed by the Board to sign in this respect.
52. FIDE Africa's revenues (including Dues) are derived from:
- (a) membership subscriptions;
 - (b) entry fees for tournaments organized by FIDE Africa or organized by mandate of FIDE Africa;
 - (c) fees for service provided by FIDE Africa; and
 - (d) any other revenues approved by the Board.

The amount of membership subscriptions and entry fees shall be stipulated in the Financial Regulations or the Tournament Regulations and thereby be subject to approval by the General Assembly.

53. The officials working for FIDE Africa have the right to have reasonable expenses reimbursed. The Board will formulate guidelines which require approval by General Assembly. Reimbursement of expenses beyond these guidelines must be approved by the General Assembly.

COMMITTEES

54. (a) The Board may appoint Officials or Committees to deal with matters of constant recurring importance, or for any of the objects or activities referred to in the Memorandum of Association and in these Articles. The President, Deputy President, Secretary General or Treasurer shall be an ex-officio member on any such Committee.

- (b) The composition, election of members of Committees and their terms of reference shall be as established by Board from time to time.
- (c) Any group of Members may request the Board to elect regional and other Committee from among themselves. Any such Committee will be subject to the approval of the Board. The application for the formation of such a Committee must be signed by at least three members of FIDE Africa.
- (d) When matters affecting any such Committee are discussed at any Board meeting, the President may ask for the attendance and assistance of a representative of the Committee concerned, who shall not have the right to vote, unless such representative is a member of the Board and therefore entitled to vote.

- 55. Any Committee shall at its first meeting shall appoint a chairman by a majority of votes.
- 56. For the smooth working of any Committee the chairman shall apply all the rules pertaining to the Board. Any deviation due to any unforeseen circumstance shall be reported at once to the Board for approval. The quorum for any Committee appointed by Board shall be not less than fifty percent of the members of such Committee.

GENERAL

- 57. In judicial proceedings FIDE Africa shall be represented by its President, who shall be able to sue or be sued on its behalf. In the absence of the President, representation shall vest in the Deputy President and then the Secretary General. In the absence of these officers, representation shall vest in the member or members appointed by the Board.
- 58. (a) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in this Statute, FIDE Africa hereby subscribes to the final settlement of any dispute directly or indirectly related to the application and implementation of these Statutes in its whole or partial practice, be it commercial or relating to the practice and development of chess or a dispute following a decision by FIDE Africa, to be sent to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne without recourse to any other court or tribunal.
 - (b) The settlement of all disputes described above shall be applicable to acts performed by:
 - FIDE Africa as an Organisation
 - FIDE Africa Office bearers
 - Member Federations, their clubs and individual players
 - Sponsors
 - Any person or body with whom FIDE Africa has entered into any form of contractual arrangement either directly or indirectly related to Chess.
 - (c) The Decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sport shall be final and binding on the parties.

59. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to, or the non receipt of notice by, any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
60. It shall be lawful by a resolution approved by a two-thirds majority of at least 50% of the members entitled to vote and be present at any General Assembly to amend or revoke the Memorandum and any of these Articles of Association, or to make such other Articles in addition as to them shall seem proper.
61. The General Assembly shall be the sole interpreter of these Articles of Association.
62. The effective date of these Articles shall be from the day after the closing of the General Assembly which approves it.
63. Communication within FIDE Africa shall be by letter, fax or e-mail.
64. Decisions made by the General Assembly concerning the Memorandum and Articles of Association will come into effect on the last day of the General Assembly, after the General Assembly is closed. Amendments to Financial Regulations come into operation on the first day of the next fiscal year and amendments to Tournament Regulations take effect as stipulated therein.
