Well, of course some technical problems lowered the level of the seminar, but this is something expected when you are pioneering innovations. Now we are more experienced, we know where the problems are hidden and we can promise that in our next internet seminar we will be near to perfect!

We would like to thank all the participants for their understanding and their will to learn and to become better and certified.

With kind regards,

The Chairman
Adrian Mikhalchishin

The Secretary
Efstratios Grivas
