

03. Financial Regulations

Financial Regulations can only be amended by a majority vote of the General Assembly or Executive Board. The exception to this is the annual membership fee for members, which requires a 2/3 majority. References to the General Assembly include the Executive Board in those years when the General Assembly is not held.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The financial year of FIDE begins on January 1st and ends on December 31st of each year.
- 1.2 The budget of FIDE is handled on the basis of the Euro monetary system. In exceptional cases the Treasurer is entitled, in agreement with the Presidential Board, to change to another monetary system. In exceptional cases he is also authorized to transfer the financial administration to another country. All FIDE bank accounts and investment accounts must at all times be held in FIDE`s name.
- 1.3. The financial management must be conducted on the basis of an annual budget set up by the Treasurer and approved by the General Assembly. If the budget is not approved, FIDE shall function on the basis of the last budget adopted by the General Assembly. In exceptional circumstances the Presidential Board can modify the budget between annual meetings of the General Assembly.
- 1.4 The Treasurer submits to the General Assembly the balance-sheet and the income and expenditure accounts, accompanied by the necessary documentation, when required, together with the audit report of a registered accountant. To complete his report, the Treasurer will give to the General Assembly the latest financial information. Decisions made by the General Assembly concerning financial regulations will come into effect on the first day of the next fiscal year.
- 1.5 After examination and approval of the documentation listed under rule 1.4, the General Assembly will discharge the Treasurer of his obligations for the financial year in question.
- 1.6 All expenses of FIDE should be paid by bank transfer. A petty cash account will be operated by the FIDE Secretariat which will be reconciled with the Treasurer on a monthly basis.
- 1.7 Financial transactions shall be signed by any two of three persons appointed by the Presidential Board; one of whom must be the Treasurer.
- 1.8 ~~An Accountant~~ shall be nominated by the Presidential Board ~~Treasurer~~ on the proposal of the Treasurer and approved by the Presidential Board.
- 1.9 The accountants shall maintain the accounts and financial records of FIDE.
- 1.10 The official bank statements shall be submitted to the Treasurer for appraisal and comment.
- 1.11 The Treasurer and/or Accountant shall make available to the Auditor any documents requested in relation to FIDE's financial management together with any explanation that may be required.

2. Costs

- 2.1 FIDE will reimburse the reasonable expenses of all Presidential Board members and Auditor necessary to exercise their function as well as the other costs of the Secretariat. However, their travelling, hotel and boarding expenses for meetings of the General Assembly, Executive Board and Presidential Board are normally borne by the organising federation. Hotel and boarding expenses for Continental Presidents are borne by the organizing federation. ~~Business class tickets will be reimbursed for Presidential Board members for air travel that exceeds 4 hours.~~ When the host federation does not pay such expenses then FIDE shall pay these expenses.
- 2.2 FIDE will only reimburse economy class tickets unless indicated in specific regulations, unless the Treasurer gives prior approval.

3. Revenues

3.1 The revenues of FIDE accrue from:

1. Membership fees to be paid by the affiliated federations.
2. Entry fees to be paid by the affiliated federations for the participation in FIDE world-level competitions.
