3. PARTICIPATION

The European Individual Women's Chess Championship is open to all players representing Chess Federations which comprise the European Chess Union (FIDE zones 1.1 to 1.10) regardless of their title or rating. There is also no limit in the number of participants per federation; however, applications have to be sent by the national federations only.

4. QUALIFIERS

The European Individual Women's Championship 2013 is a qualification event for the next World Cup. According to FIDE regulations and the decision of the ECU Board, 14 players will qualify.

5. SYSTEM AND RATE OF PLAY

The championship will be organized in 11-round Swiss system in accordance with the ECU Tournament Rules and FIDE Laws of Chess.

The rate of play will be 90 minutes for 40 moves plus 30 minutes for the rest of the game with an increment of 30 seconds per move, starting from move one.

Players may only agree to a draw after the 40th move has been made by black. Players violating this rule will be forfeited. If a player is offered a draw before the 40th move has been made by black, he should call an arbiter. His opponent shall be punished for distracting, according to the FIDE Laws of Chess.

Zero-tolerance rule will be applied for each round.

6. TIE-BREAK SYSTEM

The order of players that finish with the same number of points shall be determined by application of the following tie-breaking procedures in sequence, proceeding from (a) to (b) to (c) to (d) the extent required:

16. TRANSFER

Accompanying persons are entitled to transfer if they pay for the organization fee. Payment of the organization fee also includes other rights gained by official accreditation.

These transport services will be available on July 22 (arrival) and on August 4 (departure). If it is necessary, the organizer can accept special requests from Federations for other dates.

Players and accompanying persons who make private transfer arrangements should clearly indicate this in writing at the time of registration. They will be fully responsible for any problems experienced during their arrival or departure and particularly for the possibility of a late start to the championship.

17. VISAS

Visas for entering Serbia are necessary to participants with passports of Azerbaijan, Georgia, Armenia and Moldova.

The organizer will enable the speed-up of visa processing without the necessity of applicants' presence in person (for groups) in corresponding Serbian embassies. Passport scan must be submitted to the organizer by the same deadline as the registration of participants (5th June, 2013).

Letters of invitation for the purposes of visa issuance will be sent only to persons registered for the tournament.

18. ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS

Analyzing is not allowed in the playing hall.

During the game the players are not allowed to go to the analyzing room or to the press room.

Flashes may be used only in the first ten minutes of each round. Only players and arbiters shall be allowed to enter the actual playing area, except with the expressed permission of the Chief Arbiter.

Players are not allowed to enter the closed area of the top boards if they don't play there themselves.

As long as the game is in progress a player may talk only to an arbiter or with his opponent as permitted by the Laws of Chess.

In case of pre-arranged results the Chief Arbiter can decide that the result of the respective game is 0 - 0.

We assume that all the players have read the Tournament Regulations and are obliged to obey them.

The English text of these Tournament Regulations is the authentic version.
